8. Ins. by s. 4 (I) of the Sind Court of Wards (Admt.) Act, 1913, (Sind 2 of 1913), s. 4 (I).

of the disqualified land-holder [or pension-holder] by suit or otherwise, and assume the superintendence of the property allotted to such land-holder [or pension-holder] in the partition.

9. (1) Any land-holder [or pension-holder] may apply in writing to the [Provincial Government] to have his property placed under the superintendence of the Court of Wards, and the [Provincial Government] may on such application, where [it] is of opinion that it is expedient in the public interests, to preserve the property of such land-holder [or pension-holder] for the benefit of his family and that the said property is of such value that economical management by the Court of Wards is practicable, order the Court of Wards to assume the superintendence of the property.

Assumption of superintendence by Court of Wards on application of land-holders or pension holders.

“(1A) Any co-sharer of property, other than a co-sharer in a family undivided according to Hindu law, may make an application under sub-section (1) in respect of his own share in such property.”

(2) [In every case where property is held by co-sharers, whether as co-shares in a family undivided according to Hindu law or otherwise] an application signed by co-sharers holding an aggregate interest of not less than three-fourths of the whole property shall, for the purposes of sub-section (1), be deemed to be an application by a land-holder [or pension-holder] in respect of [the whole property]:

Provided, firstly, that no order shall be made [on any such application] under sub-section (1) where it appears to the [Provincial Government] doubtful whether the aggregate interest of the co-sharers signing [the] application amounts to not less than three-fourths of the whole property; and Provided, secondly, that nothing in this Act shall be deemed to prevent any co-sharer other than those signing any such application from obtaining partition of his share, whether by suit or otherwise.

(3) An order made under sub-section (1) shall be sufficient to authorize the Court of Wards to assume the superintendence of the property referred to therein, and no such order shall be called in question in any Court.

1. Ins. by s. 4 (1) of the Sind Court of Wards (Amalt.) Act, 1913 (Sind 2 of 1913).

2. Subs. by the A.O., 1937, for “G. in C”.

for temporary custody of heirs and protection of property in certain cases.

10. (1) Whenever the Collector receives information that any land-holder [or pension holder] is, or should be, disqualified under sub-section (1) of section 5, or that any land-holder [or pension holder] has died and that his heir is, or should be, so disqualified, he may apply to District Court and the District Court may authorise the Court of Wards to

- (a) take such steps and make such order for the temporary custody and protection of the property as the Court of Wards thinks fit; and
- (b) where the land-holder [or pension-holder] or heir is a minor, direct that the person (if any) having the custody of the minor shall produce him or cause him to be produced at such place and time and before such person as the Court of Wards may appoint, and make such order for the temporary custody and protection of the minor as the Court of Wards thinks fit:

Provided that, where the minor is a female and belongs to a class the females of which do not usually appear in public, her production shall be required only in accordance with the manners and customs of the country.

(2) Whenever the Court of Wards is authorized to proceed under sub-section (1) it shall forthwith report its action for the information of the [Provincial Government].

(3) No appeal shall lie from any order of authorization under sub-section (1), except in the case of a land-holder [or pension holder] disqualified under section 5, sub-section (1), clause (a).

11. Where the Court of Wards assumes the superintendence of the property of any land-holder [or pension-holder] disqualified under clause (a) or (d) of section 5, sub-section (1), it may, with the previous sanction of the [Provincial Government], assume the superintendence of his person also:

Provided that nothing in this section shall authorize the Court of Wards to assume the superintendence of the person of a female who is married and is in the custody of her husband.

12. Where a disqualified land-holder [or pension-holder] or a land-holder [or pension-holder] who has been made a Government ward in pursuance of an order under section 9, sub-section (1), holds land [or receives a pension] within the territorial jurisdiction of two or more Court of Wards such one only of the Courts of Wards as the [Provincial Government] may determine in this behalf shall assume the superintendence of the property, or of the person and property, of the land-holder [or pension-holder].

2. Subs. by the A.O. 1937, for "G. in C".

3. Ins. by s. 4 (3) of the Sind Court of Wards (Amdt.) Act 1913 (Sind 2 of 1913).

13. (1) Whenever the Court of Wards assumes the superintendence of the property of any land-holder [or pension-holder] under this Act, the fact of such assumption, and the date on which it was sanctioned by the [Provincial Government], shall be notified in the [Official Gazette] and in such other manner as the [Provincial Government] may, by general or special order, direct.

Assumption of superintendence to be notified and to extend to whole of Government ward's property.

(2) On and with effect from the date of such sanction, the whole of the property, moveable and immoveable, of such land-holder [or pension-holder], whether the existence of any such property is known to the Court of Wards or not, shall be deemed to be under the superintendence of the Court of Wards.

(3) Any property which the Government ward may inherit or acquire by succession subsequently to the date of such sanction shall also be deemed to be under the superintendence of the Court of Wards.

(4) The Court of Wards may, in its discretion, assume, or refrain from assuming, the superintendence of any property which the Government ward may acquire otherwise than by inheritance or succession subsequently to the date of such notification.

14. (1) On the issue of a notification under section 13, sub-section (1), the Court of Wards shall publish in the [Official Gazette], and in such other manner as the [Provincial Government] may, by general or special order, direct, a notice, in English and also in the vernacular, calling upon all persons having claims against the Government ward or his property to submit the same in writing to it within six months from the date of the publication of the notice.

Publication of notice to claimants against Government ward.

(2) Where the Court of Wards is satisfied that any claimant was unable to comply with the notice published under sub-section (1), it may allow his claim to be submitted at any time after the date of the expiry of the period fixed therein; but any such claim shall, notwithstanding any law, contract, decree or award to the contrary, cease to carry interest from the date of the expiry of such period until submission.

(3) Every claim against the Government ward or his property (other than a claim [on the part of Government]) not submitted to the Court of Wards in compliance with the notice published under sub-section (1), or allowed to be submitted under sub-section (2), shall, save in the cases provided for by section 18, sub-section (2), clause (c), and by section 7 and 13 of the Indian Limitation Act, 1877,

1. Ins. by s. 4 (1) of the Sind Court of Wards (Amtd.) Act, 1913 (Sind 2 of 1913).

2. Subs. by the A.O., 1937, for "G. in C."

3. Subs. ibid. for "B. G. G."

4. The original words "on the part of Government" have successively been amended by A.O., 1937 and then restored by the W.P.A.O., 1964, Art. 2, Sch. IV (B).

5. See now the Limitation Act, 1908 (9 of 1908).

be deemed for all purposes and on all occasions, whether during the continuance of the superintendence or afterwards, to have been duly discharged, unless, in any suit or proceeding instituted by the claimant, or by any person claiming under him, in respect of any such claim, it is proved to the satisfaction of the Court that he was unable to comply with the notice published under sub-section (I).

Power to require claimants to furnish full particulars and documents.

15. (I) The Court of Wards may by written order require that any claimant submitting his claim shall, within such reasonable time as it may prescribe in such order, furnish full particulars thereof, and produce all documents (including entries in books of account) on which he relies to support his claim, together with a true copy of every such document:

Provided that, where the claim relates to an amount secured by a decree or award, it shall be sufficient for the claimant to produce before the Court of Wards, a certified copy of the decree and a certificate from the Court which passed or is executing the same declaring the amount recoverable thereunder, or a true copy of the award and statement of the sum recoverable thereunder, as the case may be; and where the claim is pending adjudication in any Court or has been referred to arbitration, it shall be sufficient for the claimant to produce a certified copy of the plaint, or a true copy of the reference to arbitration, as the case may be.

(2) The Court of Wards shall, after marking for the purpose of identification, every original document so produced and verifying the correctness of the copy, retain the copy and return the original to the claimant.

(3) Where any document, which is in the possession or under the control of a claimant, is not produced by him in accordance with an order under sub-section (I), the document shall not be admissible in evidence against the Government ward, whether during the continuance of the superintendence or afterwards, in any suit brought by such claimant, or by any person claiming under him, in respect of any claim to which such document relates, unless it is proved to the satisfaction of the Court that he was unable to produce such document as required by such order.

Investigation
of claims.

16. (I) On receipt of all claims submitted in compliance with the provisions of sections 14 and 15, the Court of Wards shall proceed to investigate such claims and shall decide, subject to the provisions of sub-section (3), which of them are to be wholly or partly admitted or wholly or partly rejected, as the case may be, and shall communicate its decision in writing to each claimant concerned.

(2) Where the Court of Wards has admitted any claim under sub-section (I), it may make to the claimant a proposal in writing for the reduction of the claim, or of the rate of interest to be paid in future, or of both; and if such proposal, or any modification of it, is accepted by the claimant, and his acceptance is finally recorded and attested by the Court of Wards or by any Revenue-officer not below the rank of an Assistant or Deputy Collector whom the '[Provincial Government]' may, by general or special order, appoint in this behalf, it shall be conclusively binding upon the claimant:

Provided that if, when the superintendence of the property by the Court of Wards is withdrawn, any portion of the claim reduced as aforesaid is still unsatisfied, the claimant shall be entitled to recover a sum bearing the same proportion to the original claim admitted under sub-section (1) as the unsatisfied portion bears to the reduced claim.

(3) Subject to the provisions of sub-section (2), nothing in this section shall be construed to bar the institution of a suit in a Civil Court for the recovery of a claim against a Government Ward or his property which has been duly submitted to the Court of Wards:

Provided that no decision of the Court of Wards under this section shall be proved in any such suit as against the defendant.

17. (1) On the publication of a notice under section 14, sub-section (1), no proceeding in execution of any decree against the Government ward or his property shall be instituted or continued until the decree-holder files a certificate from the Court of Wards that the decree-claim has been duly submitted, or until the expiration of one month from the date of receipt by the Court of Wards of a written application for such certificate, accompanied by a certified copy of a decree.

Execution of decrees to be stayed till certificate filed.

(2) Any person holding a decree against the Government ward or his property shall be entitled to receive from the Court of Wards, free of cost, the certificate required by sub-section (1).

(3) In computing the period of limitation prescribed by the 'Indian Limitation Act, 1877, or by section 230 of the 'Code of Civil Procedure, for any application for the execution of a decree, proceedings in which have been stayed or temporarily barred by reason of the claim not having been duly submitted, the time from the date of the notice published under section 14, sub-section (1) or of the decree if it was passed subsequently to the publication of the notice, to the date of due submission shall be excluded.

18. (1) When all claims have been investigated under section 16, the Court of Wards shall submit to the '[Provincial Government]' a schedule of the debts, and liabilities of the Government ward, and Report to Provincial Government.

1. Subs. by the A. O., 1937, for "G. in C".

2. See now the Limitation Act, 1908 (9 of 1908).

3. See now the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 (5 of 1908).

the '[Provincial Government] may, where the property appears to be involved beyond all hope of extrication, or for any other sufficient reason, by order published in the "[Official Gazette]", direct that, on a date to be fixed by the order, the superintendence of the property, or of the person and property, of the Government ward by the Court of Wards shall be withdrawn.

(2) On the date so fixed :—

- (a) the superintendence shall terminate;
- (b) the owner of the property under superintendence shall be restored to the possession thereof, subject to any contracts entered into by the Court of Wards for the preservation or benefit of such property; and
- (c) the claims referred to in section 14, sub-section (3), shall revive.

(3) In calculating the periods of limitation applicable to suits to recover and enforced claims revived under sub-section (2), clause (c), the time during which such superintendence has continued shall be excluded.

19. (1) With the general or special sanction of the '[Provincial Government], the Court of Wards may, from time to time, delegate all or any of its powers to the Collector of any district in which any part of the property of a Government ward is situated, or to any other officer not below the rank of an Assistant or Deputy Collector whom it may appoint in this behalf, and may, at any time, with the like sanction, revoke such delegation.

(2) Subject to any general or special orders of the '[Provincial Government], the Court of Wards may exercise all or any of the powers conferred on it by this Act through the Collector of any district in which any part of the property of a Government ward is situated, or through any other officer not below the rank of an Assistant or Deputy Collector whom it may appoint in this behalf, and, subject to the like orders, any such Collector or Assistant or Deputy Collector may exercise all or any of the powers delegated to him under this Act through any Revenue-officer subordinate to him not below the rank of a Mahalkari.

20. The Court of Wards may appoint a manager of the property of any Government ward under its superintendence.

1. Subs. by the A. O., 1937, for "G. in C".

2. Subs. ibid. for "B. G. G.".

21. (1) Every manager appointed by the Court of Wards shall—
- (a) give such security, with such sureties (if any) as the Court of Wards thinks fit for the due discharge of the trusts of his office, and for the due account of all property and moneys which come into his control or possession by reason of his office;
 - (b) be entitled to such allowance as the Court of Wards thinks fit for his care pains in the execution of his duties; and
 - (c) be responsible for any loss occasioned to the property under his management by his wilful default or gross negligence, and every such loss shall be recoverable from him, and from his sureties (if any) as an arrear of land-revenue.

Provided that if the superintendence of the Court of Wards of the property of the said Government ward terminates under section 18 or is withdrawn under section 40, the exemption granted under this section shall with effect from the date of such termination or withdrawal cease to be in operation.]

Notice of Suit.

31. (1) No suit relating to the person or property of any Government wards shall be brought in any Civil Court until the expiration of two months after notice in writing stating the name and place of abode of the intending plaintiff, the cause of action and the relief claimed, has been delivered to, or left at the office of, the Court of Wards; and the plaint shall contain a statement that such notice has been so delivered or left;

Provided that notice under this section shall not be required in the case of any suit the period of limitation for which will expire within three months from the date of a notification issued under section 13, sub-section (1).

(2) Where any such suit is instituted without delivering or leaving such notice as aforesaid or before the expiration of the said period of two months or where the plaint does not contain a statement that such notice has been so delivered or left, the plaintiff shall not be entitled to any costs if settlement as regards the subject matter of the suit is reached or the Court of Wards concedes the plaintiff's claim within the period of two months from the date of the institution of the suit.

Provided that in a suit instituted without such notice, the Civil Court shall allow not less than three months to the Court of Wards to submit its written statement].

Manager or Court of Wards to be next friend or guardian in suit by or against Government
wards.

32. Subject to the provisions of the second paragraph of section 440 of the Code of Civil Procedure, in every suit brought by or against a Government ward, the manager of the Government ward's property, or, where there is no manager, the Court of Wards having the superintendence of the Government ward's property, shall be named as the next friend or guardian for the suit, as the case may be.

Payment of Costs.

33. Where, in any suit brought by or against a Government ward, any Civil Court decrees any costs against the Government ward's next friend or guardian for the suit, the Court of Wards shall cause the costs to be paid out of any property of the Government ward which may, for the time being, be in its hands.

1. See now the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 (Act 5 of 1908).

2. Section VI renumbered as sub-section (1) and sub-section (2) and the provisos added thereto by Ord. VI of 1-84, & 2.

34. Every process which may be issued out of any Civil or Revenue Court against any Government ward shall be served on the Government ward's next friend or guardian for the suit.

35. No suit shall be brought, and no appeal in any suit shall be preferred, by any guardian or manager appointed by the Court of Wards on behalf of any Government ward unless it is authorized by an order in writing of the Court of Wards:

Provided that a manager may authorize a plaintiff or a memorandum of appeal to be filed in order to prevent a suit or appeal from being barred by the law of limitation, but the suit or appeal shall not afterwards be proceeded with except with the sanction of the Court of Wards.

36. (1) Where any question arises as between two or more Government wards of such a nature that an adjudication upon it by a Civil Court is expedient, it shall be lawful for the Court of Wards, acting through the Collector of the district in which a case might have been stated for the opinion of the Civil Court with regard to such matter under section 527 of the 'Code of Civil Procedure to file in the Civil Court having jurisdiction a statement containing the point or points for determination.

(2) When such statement has been filed, the Court shall appoint a guardian for the suit for each ward having a separate interest, and such guardians shall thereupon conduct the case subject to the general control of the Court of Wards.

(3) The Court may, if it thinks fit, amend the case so stated and shall then proceed to hear and dispose of the case in the manner provided in Chapter XXXVIII of the 'Code of Civil Procedure, for the hearing and disposal of cases stated for opinion under that Chapter.

37. (1) Except with the approval of the Court of Wards, a Government ward shall be incompetent to transfer or create any charge on, or interest in, his property or any part thereof (except such interest as may be created by a will made in accordance with section 38), or to enter into any contract which may involve him in pecuniary liability; and no suit shall be brought in any Civil Court whereby to charge any person upon any promise made after he has ceased to be a Government ward to pay any debt contracted during the period when he was a Government ward, or upon any ratification made after he has ceased to be a Government ward of any promise or contract made during the period aforesaid, whether there is or is not any new consideration for such promise or ratification.

1. See now the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 (Act 5 of 1908).

(2) Nothing in this section shall be deemed to affect the capacity of a Government ward to enter into a contract of marriage:

Provided that a Government ward shall not incur, in connection with such a contract, any pecuniary liability, except such as, having regard to the personal law to which he is subject and to his rank and circumstances, the Court of Wards may, in writing, declare to be reasonable.

38. No will made by a Government ward shall be valid without the consent of the [Provincial Government] obtained, either previously or subsequently to the making of the will, on application made to [it] through the Court of Wards:

Consent of Provincial Government necessary to wills made by Government wards.

Provided that consent shall not be withheld unless it appears to the [Provincial Government] that the will is contrary to the personal or special law applicable to the ward, or that it is likely to cause considerable pecuniary embarrassment to the property, or to lower considerably the influence or respectability of the family in public estimation.

39. Where on the death of any Government Ward, the succession to his property or any part thereof is disputed the Court of Wards may, with the sanction of the [Provincial Government], either retain the superintendence of the property until one of the claimants has established his claim to the same in a competent Civil Court, or institute a suit of interpleader against all the claimants.

Procedure when succession to Government ward's property is disputed.

40. (1) Where superintendence has been assumed in pursuance of an order under section 9, sub-section (1), the Court of Wards shall withdraw such superintendence as soon as, in the opinion of the [Provincial Government], the property is free from embarrassment.

Withdrawal of superintendence of Court of Wards.

(2) The Court of Wards may, with the sanction of the [Provincial Government], at any time withdraw its superintendence from the person or property, or both, of a Government ward, and shall withdraw its superintendence as soon as, in the opinion of the District Court, certified to the Court of Wards,

Provided, secondly, that, where the Court of Wards withdraws its superintendence, such withdrawal shall not affect any contract entered into by the Court of Wards in the lawful exercise of its powers; and

Provided, thirdly, that

(a) no person who has once been declared disqualified under clause (b) or (c) of sub-section (1) of section 5, and

(b) except in the case of any co-sharer other than those signing an application described in section 9, sub-section (2), no land-holder [or pension-holder] who has been made a Government ward in pursuance of an order under section 9, sub-section (1), shall be competent, on the withdrawal of such superintendence, to transfer or create any charge on or interest in his property or any part thereof for a period beyond the term of his natural life, except with the previous sanction of the Collector.

(3) No appeal shall lie from any opinion certified under sub-section (2).

41. (1) Where, in exercise of the power conferred by section 40, the Court of Wards decides to withdraw its superintendence from the person or property, or both, of any minor, it shall, before such withdrawal, by an order in writing, appoint some person to be guardian of the person or property, or both, of the minor, and such appointment shall take effect from the date of such withdrawal.

(2) In appointing a guardian under this section, the Court of Wards shall be guided by the provisions of the Guardians and Wards Act, 1890; and every guardian so appointed shall have, and be subject to, the same rights, duties and liabilities as if he had been appointed under that Act.
